WHAT TO DO IN BUCHAREST?

1. Visit the Palace of Parliament (the world's biggest parliamentary building, a folly and testament to the megalomania of former dictator Nicolae Ceaușescu, threemillion-plus square feet, more than a thousand rooms)

2. Visit the Village Museum

3. Take a walk in Cișmigiu Gardens (in the center of the city, it is a pearl of park built around a romantic lake and featuring oldgrowth trees and gracious,wrought-iron signposts and benches)

WHAT TO DO IN BUCHAREST?

4. See the Arc of Triumph— a genuine homage to Paris— and another elegant city park built around a lake: Herăstrău Park

5. Visit Museum of the Romanian Peasant (it presents elaborate woodworking, pottery-making, egg-painting, and weaving skills of the peasantry in a way that's both educational and amusing)

6. Visit the city's hidden, historic churches (e.g. s. the Stavropoleos Church in the Old City with its rich wall paintings and finely carved doors, St. Apostles' Church, Antim Church, and the hard-to-find-but-worth-the-effort Doamnei Church)

7. Take a walk in Văcărești Natural Reservation

8. Take a look at the Romanian Athenaeum concert hall (opened in 1888, it is home of the George Enescu Philharmonic and holds an international music festival every April)

9. Visit Mogoșoaia Palace (It was built between 1698- 1702 by Constantin Brâncoveanu in what is called the Romanian Renaissance style or Brâncovenesc style)

10. OR lose yourself in one of the beautiful old neighborhoods (Armenească, Cotroceni)
